

CELEBRATING BLACK VOICES

IN MEMORY OF GEORGE FLOYD

Please join us for a drop in reflective space to celebrate black voices in memory of George Floyd.

This is an opportunity to reflect together and celebrate contributions from black voices who are part of the social work community and beyond.

How you participate in this event is your choice - just come and listen or actively participate by sharing your thoughts and experiences, or those of someone who you admire.

We acknowledge that this reflection may bring up powerful thoughts and emotions. So, there will be an opportunity for one to one support in a private break out room (these will be facilitated by social work colleagues from a range of diverse backgrounds).

There is no need to book, just click on the link below and drop in any time between 11:30am and 1pm.
