10:30-11:30	Key Note from Gillian Ruch University of Sussex: Professor Gillian Ruch will be sharing the findings from the 'Talking and Listening to Children' Campaign. Little is known about how social workers communicate with children in their everyday practice. This research focuses on the routine communication between social workers and children. It aims to generate new knowledge that will enhance social work education, practice and policy. In doing so, we hope the research will improve children's experiences of social work practice. The research uses ethnography and video stimulated recall sessions with children and social workers.
