

The BASW Belfast Fringe
Thursday 20th June at 7.30pm to late
The Black Box, 18-22 Hill Street, Belfast BT1 2LA
Free event

The Belfast Fringe is a fantastic opportunity to join together in a relaxed, social space to enjoy some good Northern Ireland culture and craic.

You can look forward to local music, stand-up comedy, discussion, a photo booth will all be part of the evening.

The Black Box has a licenced bar. Food cannot be purchased, however nibbles will be provided.

Housed in a Grade 2 listed building in Hill Street within the Historical Cathedral Quarter of Belfast, the building was converted into an arts venue in 2006.

The Black Box has established itself as one of the principal arts and entertainment venues in the City and described as a home for live music, theatre, literature, comedy, film, visual art, live art, circus, cabaret and all points in between.

Come along and experience some warm Ulster hospitality and entertainment.
